What is camp?

Edmund Rice Camp is a fun, recreational, holiday-like week for children aged 7-11 who might not otherwise get the opportunity.

A Camp-day runs from 9am – 3pm Monday to Friday, which are filled with fun and creative activities and day trips.

Where is camp?

Edmund Rice Camps occur worldwide, from Australia, to parts of Africa, North America, Ireland and England.

In England, camps are held across Liverpool, The Wirral, Stoke-On-Trent and Manchester.

Why volunteer?

“It’s always going to be my favourite week of the year and I always have to keep coming back for one more camp”

(Camp Leader, 5 camps)

“I am so incredibly humbled and proud to have been a part of Edmund Rice Camp; to see how much the leaders and children grow and how much everyone has gained from the week. It has honestly been such a privilege”

(Camp Co-ordinator, 8 years)
