

Styling My Future

By offering the skill of hairdressing to vulnerable young single mothers in Sierra Leone, West Africa, the Senan Kerrigan Vocational Centre transforms lives & empowers our sisters to be able to support themselves and their young families, cutting them free them from poverty & enforced prostitution.

Donate now

watch the video to find out more

“

I'm a single mother, the father of my baby denied any responsibility. The skills project has restored my hope. With hair-plaiting contracts from the community, I can care for my child and have earned respect and recognition.

Nathorma Amara

Edmund Rice
DEVELOPMENT

